I'm a Simplifier

I take complex things and make them simple.
Whenever I get stuck, I need to simplify more.

Questions to Move Projects Forward

- 360 View - look at things from other people's perspective.
- Who, what, where, why
 - Who am I doing it for?
 - What am I doing?
 - Why am I doing it?
- What's the 1 thing I think about all the time?
- What's the 1 thing that could make all the difference?
- What can I use from my Cookie Jar?
- What makes sense for this project?
 - Brain Dump
 - Drawing
 - Tracking Sheet
 - Tiny Experiment - Get a Rolling Start
- What am I taking for granted? What head start do I have that I am letting slip away?

Checklist for Starting a New Project
